

DEAF QUEEN BOSS

Tips For Family

- Have "conversations" with your child. Get the child to talk to you. Try to get her/him to answer questions with more than a "yes" or "no."
- Help your child learn about taking turns in conversations
- Encourage the rest of your family to be patient if you need to repeat or translate what they said.

DEAF QUEEN BOSS

Tips For Family

- Encourage your child to participate in sports.
- Find a hearing and deaf school to balance the communication.
- Learn basic sign languages
- Face the child when speaking
- Never give up or say “I’ll tell you later”